Speaker

Joshua Gunter, MSN, RN, NEA-BC, CCRN-CMC

Mr. Gunter is a full-time nursing instructor at the University of Alabama who received his ADN from Jefferson State Community College, BSN from Jacksonville State University and MSN in nursing health systems administration from the University of Alabama at Birmingham. He is currently enrolled as a DNP student at the University of Alabama with a research focus in nursing informatics.

Mr. Gunter began his nursing career in 2009 in the cardiac stress lab. From 2011-2015, he worked as a bedside nurse in the cardiac intensive care unit. In 2015, he moved to Granbury, TX, to become the director of ICU, respiratory and telemetry monitoring as well as the clinical informatics nurse. After completing his MSN and serving as an ICU director for two years, he became the chief nursing officer for a critical illness recovery hospital in Birmingham, AL. In January 2019, he became a full-time faculty member at the University of Alabama's Capstone College of Nursing.

Course Overview

The nurse executive-advanced and nurse executive board certification examinations are competency-based assessments to validate knowledge related to the art and science of nursing leadership. Nurse executives taking this course will learn about operational structures and processes that support nursing excellence, exemplary professional practice, transformational leadership, knowledge management and the development of new knowledge and innovations. This course will not only prepare the nurse executive for a successful examination, but will also enable them to be a stronger nurse leader within their organization.

Program Learning Outcomes

This program prepares the learner to:

- Apply principles of transformational leadership to advance the practice of nursing and achieve clinical and operational excellence within their organization.
- Identify strengths and areas of opportunity in preparing for board certification as a nurse executive.
- Develop a test plan strategy based on the review course and examination content outline to ensure success on the nurse executive examination.
